

I believe the No Call list should remain as it is. Wisconsin citizens have approved this plan. If the FCC bows to the special interests of the Consumer Banking Association now, many other changes will no doubt follow in its wake, and render the protection we have now ineffective. Please DO NOT allow this to happen.